

Monmouth Center for World Religions and Ethical Thought
Co-sponsored by the Social Action Committee of the Unitarian Universalist Congregation

1475 W. Front Street, Lincroft, NJ 07738

Telephone: (732) 747-0707

2:30 – 4:30 p.m. Sunday -- February 14, 2010

Justice is love in action:

Deepening the dialogue

an afternoon of the arts and round-table discussion

Drumming -- Skip Leib and friends

Dance -- *Dr. Carol Penn, former Alvin Ailey dancer, and
"Core of Fire" dance ministry*

Music -- the Al Wright Jazz Trio

Spoken Word -- Lorraine Stone

Dialogue -- Rev. Gil Caldwell and Dr. Stevi Lischin
(facilitators)

The Monmouth Center for World Religions and Ethical Thought is presenting a program of the arts and round table discussion. Following the arts program, small discussion groups will provide a safe place to deepen an understanding of the continuing struggle toward justice and peace for everyone.

Refreshments will be offered.

An offering will be taken for the victims of the Haiti earthquake.